I CAN VOTE!

REGISTER ON THE ELECTORAL LISTS

Dear fellow citizens,

By participating in the municipal elections of 8 October 2017, you will choose directly the 9 municipal councillors who will defend your interests for the 6 years to come!

Why vote as a non-Luxembourgish resident?

Luxembourg has 576,249 inhabitants, 47% of whom are foreign nationals. On 8 October 2017, let us turn out to vote in the municipal elections in large number. The right to vote is a fundamental means of participating in the social, economic, political and cultural life of your municipality.

Register in your municipality today, because abstaining means letting the others decide!

What does my municipality do?

As one of the 105 municipalities of Luxembourg, Garnich is vested with powers to manage its own bodies, heritage, territory and interests. Each municipality has its own municipal council which is elected directly by the inhabitants of the municipality every six years.

Your municipality performs multiple tasks that have a direct impact on your daily life! Here are some of them:

- Equipment of primary schools, childcare centres and crèches
- Cultural facilities (cultural centre, music school, theatre, etc.)
- Sport facilities
- Organisation of public transport and shuttle service
- Social cohesion and integration of the municipality's residents
- Social welfare, social offices and school subsidies
- Ecological initiatives ("Climate Pact")
- Drinking water supply
- Municipal land management and urban development (building permits)
- Waste management and sorting
- etc.

How to register on the electoral lists as a non-Luxembourgish resident?

As a non-Luxembourgish resident, you can participate in municipal elections, provided you:

- are 18 years of age on the day of the elections (8 October 2017);
- have been residing in Luxembourg for at least 5 years at the time of registration;
- go to the town hall by 13 July 2017 inclusive (with your identity card or passport);
- complete 2 declarations provided by the municipality.

National days for registration in the electoral lists

Apart from the usual opening hours, to facilitate this administrative formality, the offices of the municipality of Garnish will be open exceptionally on the following dates:

- Saturday, 13 May 2017, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 noon
- Saturday, 1 July 2017, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 noon
